Access subscription databases, e-books, and online journals from off-campus via EZProxy!

Before you start, you will need the following:
- a Bryn Mawr College account
- a device with internet access
- If connected, disconnect from the Pulse Secure VPN

You cannot use the EZProxy system while connected to Pulse Secure.

How EZProxy works
1. Navigate to the EZProxy login page
2. Login with your College username and password
3. Navigate to the library resource you'd like to access
4. EZProxy will automatically prepend https://proxy.brynmawr.edu/login?url= to the URL of the page you're visiting.

proxy.brynmawr.edu missing? Add it to the beginning of the URL manually to reinitiate your EZProxy session!

Bookmarklet
Instead of navigating to resources via the LITS website, install the bookmarklet for easy access!
1. Navigate to the Off-Campus Access page on the LITS website
2. Scroll down to "EZProxy Bookmarklet"
3. Click and drag the "Access via BMC Library" button to your bookmarks bar
4. Click the bookmark anytime you want to access your current page via EZProxy

Troubleshooting
Having issues using EZProxy? Try the common fixes listed below. If the issue persists, contact the Help Desk!

- Ensure you've disconnected from the Pulse Secure VPN
- Clear your internet browser's cache
- Try accessing the link from a mobile device using your data plan
- Comcast/Xfinity users may need to disable xFi Advanced Security

Alumnae/i

Alumnae/i cannot use EZProxy, but do have access to databases such as JSTOR, Mango Languages, and Project Muse.
