If you are confused or need help with submitting your event, please reach out to Communications.

"Events in Drupal" are advertisements of your event on the college website and also in the Daily Digest.

Please note you will still need to book your room through the Conferences and Events department. This step should be done first to ensure you have your space reserved.

To ensure successful promotion of your event on the website and in the daily digest, we recommend securing your event space and completing the Drupal event submission form at least two weeks in advance of your event.

If you need help creating a communication plan for your event, please contact communications@brynmawr.edu.

Submitting an Event:

Drupal Users:

Content->Add Content->Event and fill out the form.
On your Group Page, find the Submit Content area on the right and click on the Event link and then fill out the form.

Submit content
- Announcement
- Event

Non-Drupal Users – Try either of these ways to get to the form

Navigate to https://brynmawr.edu/inside/events/submit and fill out the form.

Navigate to Inside Bryn Mawr, then hover over The Latest and select Promote Your Event from the dropdown. Fill out the form.

Filling in the form for Drupal Users (logged in):

On your Group Page, find the Submit Content area on the right and click on the Event link and then fill out the form.
Event Title

Use an effective title, since this will display both on the website and in the Daily Digest. It is better to be concise whenever possible. If the actual name of the event is more than a handful of words, consider using a shortened title in this field and the expanded version in the body of the page.

Image

The Image field is collapsed by default since it is optional. If you wish to add an image, please make sure you expand both Image fields as the outer field is for caption and orientation and the inner Image field is for actually uploading or embedding an image.

Date/Time

This is defaulted to no date/time. Please use the date picker to choose the correct date for your event. Please be sure to enter an end date/time for your event.
Duration

Duration field is defaulted to 1 hour, so if your event is less or more time, please select the most appropriate choice.

Both the time and date fields are set to be manually filled in as:

- mm/dd/yyyy – for the Date
- hh:mm AM – for a morning time
- hh:mm PM – for an afternoon/evening time.

In some browsers you may encounter a calendar and clock icon that will allow you to use the picker if you click on the icons in the appropriate field. If you don’t see the icon, just put your cursor in the field and start typing the Date and Time manually.

This field is limited to 200 characters.

Zoom URLs are not allowed in this field.

The next field is an Advanced WYSIWYG where you can put images, videos, blockquotes, links, as well as bulleted and numbered lists.

Information in this field will only display on the Event Detail Page.

Use this to add more information for the event. Do not repeat the blurb information as it will then appear twice on the Event Detail Page.

Flexible Content

This is to display Flexible Content Items on your event.

Since Events are reviewed and approved by the Communications Team, you may want to check with them about any Flexible Content Items you want to add.

More about Flexible Content Items on an Event

Tags (syndication)
This next field is how you can syndicate your event across our website. By selecting tags that are relevant for your event it can be pulled into other pages by referencing that specific tag through an Event 3-Up Flexible Content Item on that page.

This Tag field is dropdown field, so you can scroll through the list to see some tags from which to choose.

If Tags confuse you, but you think you may need one, please consult with Communications about their help with tags for your particular event submission.

You can add another tag by clicking the Add another item button.
The Tags field is a setting for Announcements, Events, News and Story that helps the website categorize the content for display.

The Display Theme(s) (see below) and Tags work together to pull the desired content into a display on a page.

Daily Digest Opt In/ Opt out

Default is for it to appear in the Daily Digest (opt in)

☐ Do NOT publish in the Daily Digest

To Opt Out of Daily Digest Publication

You can also choose not to publish your event in the Daily Digest by checking the box next to that selection. If you check the box, the only thing left to do is press Save.

☑ Do NOT publish in the Daily Digest

Daily Digest Dates

This will promote your event to the Daily Digest e-newsletter on two specific dates you pick with the date picker as well as on the day of the event.
Display Themes

If you are filling out an Event Submission form as a logged in Drupal user, you will see a “Theme(s) & Options” link on the right-side of the screen. If you expand it, you will see there are several choices you can make for where this event can display.
The Display theme is a setting that is set for Announcements, Events, News and Story. This tells the website that this piece of content is allowed to be displayed in all the themes that are selected in this field, whether as a direct piece of content (like a Basic Page or News) or via a Flexible Content Item that has one of these Display themes set.

Display Theme for Events is default set to Inside Bryn Mawr as that is the Theme where the Event Listing Page hub lives https://www.brynmawr.edu/inside/latest/events.

Display Theme(s) dictate what other themes your Event can be displayed in – this includes being displayed in Event 3-Up Flexible Content Item that may exist on Basic Pages, etc.

So, if you want your Event to appear in GSAS themed pages that pull in an Event 3-up with the Tag STEM this event would have to have “STEM” in the Tag field and also have the Display Theme additionally set to Graduate School of Arts and Science (GSAS).

Submitting the Event

You will notice that there are two disabled checkboxes that appear immediately before the Save button. These boxes are for Administrative Use Only as your Event gets checked and approved for accuracy and then published.
What to Expect Upon Pressing the “Save“ Button:

- You will receive a message stating your event has been submitted for review.
- The event will remain unpublished until Communications can review it.
- If any additional information is necessary, you will be contacted by a member of the Communications Team.
- When your event is approved and published, you will be contacted by Communications.
- Your event will appear on the Events Landing Page on the date of your event.
- If you did not opt out of advertising in the Daily Digest, your event will be advertised on the day of the event and on the dates you selected in the Daily Digest.
- If you choose to add an Event 3-up Flexible Content Item to a page in your section, your event will appear there only if you have chosen the tag you added to your Event upon its creation.

Confirmation Message

Once you press SAVE, you will be taken back to the Main Events Listing Page (/inside/latest/events). There will be a confirmation success message appearing at the top of the page that looks something like this:

Event AK Test Event - WS hybrid off has been created.
Thank you for completing the Event/Daily Digest submission form!
You should receive a confirmation email with the details of your submission for reference. Before publication, all submissions undergo a review and approval process by Conferences and Events and College Communications. You may be contacted by email as part of that process.

Once submitted, event details cannot be changed using the form. If you need to alter any details of your submission, please contact communications@brynmawr.edu.

Please note that you can NOT edit your Event after you submit it. You can check it to see that your Event information is correct in multiple ways. If you do notice that you made a typo or put in wrong information, you can reach out to Communications via email.
Checking your Event for Accuracy

METHOD ONE - Checking the Unpublished Event page

If you click on the title of your Event in that green confirmation message that you see after you submit the event, you can view the unpublished event and check it for errors. You will know it is unpublished because the background will be pink, as seen in the screenshot. You should double check the date, time and location.

You can scroll to the bottom of the unpublished event to check any other information for typos.
METHOD TWO - Checking the Email

Await email confirmation that your Event has been published.

Once you receive your email confirmation, you should check all the information for typos or inaccuracies. If you do notice that you made a typo or put in wrong information, you can reach out to Communications via email.
