Zoom: Am I using A Bryn Mawr Zoom account?

Last Modified on 02/20/2024 11:58 am EST

Bryn Mawr students and employees can use personal or BMC Zoom licenses, although certain features may only be available on a BMC Zoom account. This article explains how to tell which one you have logged into from your account profile page.

Before you start, you may need access to the following:

- a computer or tablet with a web browser (you can't access your profile page from the mobile app).

1. Log into Zoom in your web browser.
2. Click Profile in the left sidebar menu.
3. Scroll down to the Meeting section.
   - If your Personal Meeting ID contains "https://brynmawr-edu.zoom.us", then you are logged into a Bryn Mawr Zoom account.

   - If your Personal Meeting ID does not contain https://brynmawr-edu.zoom.us, then you are logged in to a personal Zoom account, even if you logged into your account using a Bryn Mawr email address.
If you do not have a Bryn Mawr Zoom account, see Zoom: Get/log into a BMC account for instructions on how to get and log in to one.
