Zoom is a purpose-built web-conferencing tool. It has features that make it easier to run large collaborative meetings: a fully collaborative whiteboard, polling, and breakout rooms.

Personal vs. BMC Zoom accounts

- You can use a personal Zoom account to attend most meetings hosted by Bryn Mawr College faculty, students and staff.
- However, you will need a BMC Zoom account to be an alternative host for a BMC-hosted meeting and to fully use the integrations with Moodle and Panopto.
- All current Bryn Mawr College students and employees are also eligible for accounts on Bryn Mawr College's institutional Zoom license.
- A BMC Zoom account allows you to host meetings for up to 300 attendees with no time limits.

Note: If you're not sure if you have a BMC account, read Zoom: Am I using A Bryn Mawr Zoom account?

Set up your BMC Zoom Account

If you have a personal Zoom account, do one of the following BEFORE you set up your BMC Zoom account:

- If you want to keep the personal account, change the email address associated with it to something other than an @brynmawr.edu address if necessary.
- If you don't want to keep the personal account, cancel your subscription if you have one and then delete the account.

When you're ready to create your BMC Zoom account, follow the Log in to Your BMC Zoom Account in a Web Browser instructions below. The first time you log into to Zoom using the Sign in with SSO option and your Bryn Mawr College credentials an account will automatically be created.

If you run into any difficulty, please contact help@brynmawr.edu.
