

Moodle: Link to McGraw Hill Connect

Last Modified on 01/13/2025 9:03 am EST

Instructors can link a Moodle course to McGraw-Hill's online learning platform, Connect to give students access to online textbooks and textbook supplements.

Before you start, you may need access to the following:

- an Instructor of Record or Other Editing Teacher role in a Moodle course
- an Instructor account for McGraw-Hill Connect. Use your Bryn Mawr email address to create one on McGraw-Hill's website, if you don't have one already.

Set up a Connect course

1. Go to <https://www.mheducation.com/> and click Sign in.
2. Select Connect.
3. Sign into your account, which should be connected to your Bryn Mawr email (see link above if you need to create one).
4. On the My Courses page, click Add Course.
5. Under Find a title, use Search title, author, or subject bar to look for the textbook or resources you want to use in your course.
6. On the next page:
  - Enter a Course Name. We recommend using the same one as your Moodle course.
  - Select the US/Eastern time zone.
  - Add Registration dates and a Section Name if desired.
7. Click Create Course.

Add your Connect course to Moodle

1. Open your Moodle course and toggle Edit Mode on.
2. Click + Add an activity or resource in the section where you want to add the link to McGraw-Hill Connect.
3. Select McGraw Hill.
4. Click Select Content.
5. A new window will open. Select Pair with a Connect Section.
6. On the next page, select Pair with an existing Connect course.
7. On the next page, find the Course you previously created on McGraw Hill Connect's website. Then,

click Select

8. A new screen should open saying the connection was successful. From there, you can choose Back to Moodle or Go to Section Home. The second option will show you the page for your course on McGraw Hill Connect's site, which you can use to create and send out assignments.
9. On your course page, click the title of the activity to open it.
10. Select the textbook that's relevant to your Moodle course, then click Connect.
11. Select I want this for my students, then click Adopt Connect.
12. On the next screen, select "A section in an existing Connect course" and pair with the Connect course you created earlier.
